

IUGA Online Store Policy

1. ITEMS FOR SALE IN THE IUGA ONLINE STORE

- 1.1 The IUGA Online Store was launched in 2012 to sell IUGA educational materials developed by the Public Relations Committee. IUGA allows members to submit their educational materials for review and assessment for sale in the Online Store. Each case will be considered on a case-by-case basis, but should fit into the following guidelines to be considered for sale:

E-books/Books

- 1.1.1 IUGA member must be the primary author and own all copyrights to the book.
1.1.2 All authors on the book must sign a waiver giving IUGA permission to sell the book in the IUGA Online Store.
1.1.3 Product must be reviewed by the IUGA Public Relations Committee to make sure it is relevant to IUGA members and/or the Education Committee to ensure validity and that all methods, treatments, etc. in the book are evidence-based.
1.1.4 IUGA does not accept responsibility for the contents of the book or material.
1.1.5 Agreement to sell the e-book/book is not an agreement for promotion of the e-book/book or material by IUGA.

Models and Other Educational Items

- 1.1.6 IUGA member must own all rights to the model or item.
1.1.7 The model/item must be an original.
1.1.8 The copyright owner(s) must sign a waiver giving IUGA permission to sell the model/item in the IUGA Online Store.
1.1.9 Agreement to sell the item is not an agreement for promotion of the product by IUGA.
- 1.2 Items provided to IUGA will be sold at cost. There are no opportunities for profit. IUGA will not enter into any negotiation regarding profit.
- 1.3 IUGA can decide at any time to discontinue the sale of a product/book for any reason without notice.
